VANDELAY TECHNOLOGIES AWARDED GSA SCHEDULE CONTRACT

Gaithersburg, Maryland, June 1, 2003 - Vandelay Technologies, a leading provider of information technology services, today announced it was awarded a General Services Administration Schedule Contract for Information Technology. The GSA Schedule enables federal government agencies, commercial primes that have federal agency authority, and state governments that adopt GSA provisions to utilize pre-negotiated rates and terms when purchasing Vandelay Technologies' technical and consulting services.

Vandelay Technologies has developed and deployed applications for the military and judicial branches of government. Customers include the Drug Enforcement Agency, National Reconnaissance Office, Unisys, Titan, U.S. Navy, and Lockheed Martin.

"We're pleased to have been awarded a GSA Schedule Contract," said Lenny Ilkovich, Vice President of Sales for Vandelay Technologies. Ilkovich added, "With our continued focus on government contracts the GSA Schedule reduces purchasing cycle times as it's easier for government contractors, customers and ourselves to work together, ultimately accelerating our growth into this market space."

Availability

This multiple award schedule is effective immediately and continues through May 27,2008, with additional five-year option periods. Vandelay Technologies GSA contract number is GS-35F-0641N.

Vandelay Technologies provides information technology services and products to government and commercial clients. The company specializes in systems engineering, integration and network systems, Internet/intranet/extranet access and services. The company is headquartered in Gaithersburg, Maryland.
